NARRATIVE:

Raymond Infante is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include domestic violence with injury, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, multiple burglaries, petty theft with priors, several convictions for transporting and selling marijuana, under the influence of PCP, possession of marijuana for sale, possession of controlled substances, under the influence of controlled substances, petty theft, shoplifting and having a suspended license. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 4 year term for burglary. Infante was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 30, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Infante qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with priors is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
